

The

Trojan Rule

Vol. 7, No. 19 - June 2015

A biweekly publication of Subiaco Academy
Subiaco, Arkansas
www.subi.org

Camp Subiaco 2015

Forty-six alumni and parents volunteered to staff the two sessions (June 14-20 and June 21-27) of Camp Subiaco 2015. Two hundred thirty-five campers from eleven states enjoyed the two camping sessions. Boys, ages 9-13, arrived at Subiaco from Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, Kansas, California, Georgia, Illinois, and Missouri. Activities included fishing, swimming, water basketball, tubing, archery, gokarting, riflery, canoeing, zip line, climbing wall, outdoor games, and outdoor camping. Traditional favorite camp activities are box hockey and fishing.

Twenty-four students served as counselors-in-training. During week one CITs were Christian Kaufman, Nsiong Archibong, Aaron Brooks, John Paul Post, Andrew Eveld, Caleb Phillips, Max Morton, and Ryan Moore. Jackson Mendenhall was the camp lifeguard. Serving as CITs during the week of June 21-27 were the following: Luke Hertlein, Ryan King, Nicholas Schmitz, Haegan Hess, Ryland Estes, Gage Lee, Seth Kupers, Nsiong Archibong, Ben Ingle, Sam Nichol, David Bolt, Elliot Mason, Ryan Moore, Abe Schenk, Jr., and Zach Plugge. Will Owens was the arts and crafts supervisor. Zach Franz was the camp lifeguard. Aaron Brooks and Tyler Franz were counselors.

To view additional photos, click on CAMP SUBIACO.

A vocation, not a career

Bishop Anthony Taylor ordained Brother Patrick Boland, OSB, to the priesthood on Saturday, June 20, at St. Benedict Church at Subiaco Abbey. Abbot Leonard Wangler, OSB, and other priests in attendance celebrated the 10 a.m. ordination Mass, which was followed by a reception in the PAC Lounge. In his homily Bishop Taylor noted Fr. Patrick's successes in various careers prior to his "call," his vocation to monastic life and to the priesthood. The newly ordained priest celebrated his first Mass at St. Benedict Church on Sunday, June 21 at 10:45 a.m.

Fr. Patrick earned a master's degree from Saint Vincent Seminary in Latrobe, PA, on May 8. He earned a bachelor's degree in theology from St. Gregory's University in Shawnee, OK through the Little Rock Theology Institute in 2011. He began discerning the priesthood after he professed his solemn vows as a Benedictine monk and permanent member of Subiaco Abbey in 2010.

Fr. Patrick, originally from Northeast, PA, volunteered with youth groups and worked in campus ministry, as he began discerning a religious vocation. He came to Subiaco for a vocations retreat in July 2003 and returned in July 2004 for a second retreat. After that retreat he applied to join the abbey.

In September 2005 he became a candidate at Subiaco Abbey. Six months later, he became a novice and in 2007, he made his first profession as a Benedictine and took the name Patrick. Later he earned a bachelor's degree in professional studies with an emphasis in communications from Arkansas Tech University in Russellville in 2010 and began teaching religion and Scripture at Subiaco Academy.

"O God, I only want to do, what you ask, in the way you ask, for as long as you ask, because you ask," a quote from Pope Clement XI, is listed on the prayer card celebrating Fr. Patrick's ordination. He said he chose this quote because it best describes his vocation in serving the Church, first as a monk, and now as a monk and priest. "These words have been my watch words in all that the Abbey has asked of me. They sustain and inspire me to serve God and the Church. (They are) the reason for my entrance into monastic life at Subiaco. Now they take on additional meaning in 'being present' to all, as 'an icon of Christ, the priest,'" Fr. Patrick said, to help him describe the significance of the quote.

To read another article about Fr. Patrick click HERE.

New tennis courts under construction

Progress on new front entrance

Stone masons at Fuhrman Hall