

The Subiaco Monthly

September 2016 www.subi.org

Grandparents' Day - September 12, 2016

Day Dog Picnic - October 1, 2016

Subiaco Homecoming - October 14, 2016

The Trojan Rule, Academy bi-weekly newsletter may be viewed by clicking on the Trojan Rule.

To view postings on the alumni forum click on Forum.

The Abbey Message is available for viewing by clicking on TAM.

Alumni News

Steve Susi '89 is Global Creative Director for Amazon and has moved to London with the position. Steve was recently visited by his brother and classmate, Anthony Susi '89 and friend and fellow alumni, Kevin Rieder '88. They were able to take a train up to Scotland and play golf at St. Andrews and Carnoustie.

Bill Sparks '59 and wife Martha, stopped by the Trojan Shop and chatted about old times at Subi.

Loyal Scranton area gentlemen (Ken Tencleve '68, Butch Geels '56, Cletus Geels, Joe Mains '87, Jim Tencleve '67, Tom Siebenmorgen '52, John Fox, Charlie Kremers '78) generously helped with the grape harvest in August.

View the Solemn Profession ceremony of Brs. Roch and Damien by clicking HERE.

Steve Schmitz '91 and Francisco Montemayor '91 had dinner together in Dallas

Matt Noble '03 visited with Joe Bezner '36, our oldest living alumnus.

Sean Wright '06 posed after the ring ceremony with his daughter and brothers Judd '17 and Trey '17.

Hasten Freeman '11 pitches for the Sioux City (Iowa) Explorers in the American Association of Independent Professional Baseball.

Gatherings

Alumni, friends, and monks enjoyed the camaraderie at the NW Arkansas Naturals baseball game on August 5, 2016.

After the Saturday afternoon, August 27, Mass at St. John Church in Russellville, we enjoyed snacks and visiting with Subiaco folks..

James Joseph “Jim” O’Connor ‘68 died August 3, 2016, at the age of 67. He served in the U.S. Army until honorably discharged in 1971 and accepted employment at what is now VA Medical Center Memphis, retiring August 3, 2009. Jim is survived by his wife, two sons, three daughters, 15 grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, and one brother.

Charlie Needham ‘71 died August 19, 2016. He is survived by one sister.

Academy News

Parent Association officers: Maria Constantino - Secretary, Karen Lee - President, Melaine Haurert - Vice-President, Kim Plugge - Treasurer

Reporting in during the new student scavenger hunt

Jordan Rainwater gaining yardage in the scrimmage game at Charleston

Nine members of the Franz family posed after the Ring Ceremony on August 21.

Checking on the men of yesteryear.

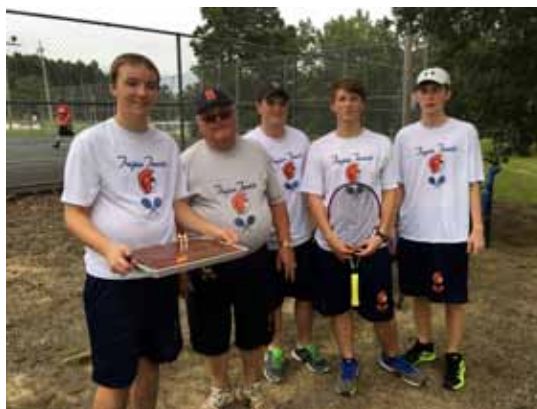

Cole Bowman '01 registered his son Austin as a member of the class of 2021.

Learning Mandarin Chinese with the help of technology

Tubing at Lake Dardanelle - a favored activity of new student orientation

Subiaco Trojans opened the 2016 tennis season at Mena with a 6-0 win over the Bearcats. Andrew Eveld and Robert Remy led the Subiaco attack with a 9-8 victory over a talented number one Mena doubles team. The win happened on Br. Adrian's birthday.

Abbey News

Brs. Pio and Ephrem provide Sunday afternoon piscatorial instruction.

Br. Roch McClellan, O.S.B., and Br. Damien Cafaro, O.S.B., made their solemn profession of vows as monks of Subiaco Abbey at Mass on August 20.

Young monks are studying at various universities: Br. Matthias (Catholic University in D.C.), Br. Reginald (St. John School of Theology in Minnesota), Br. Cassian (St. Meinrad School of Theology in Indiana), Fr. Elijah (Rome), Br. Basil (Arkansas Tech University), Br. Raban (University of the Ozarks), and Br. Benedict (University of Arkansas Ft. Smith).