Subiaco Academy is a Catholic, college preparatory boarding and day school in the Benedictine tradition for young men in grades 7-12.

We see Christ in each student, guiding him in his response to God, aiding the development of his known and hidden gifts, and fostering a search for truth and an appreciation of the arts.

Subiaco Academy offers:

- 10:1 student to teacher ratio
- Average class size 15
- 13 AP courses
- Concurrent courses
- 7 major athletic teams, Quiz Bowl, and many other activities
- Phenomenal visual arts, vocals, instrumental music program, and drama
- Outdoor activities including hiking, fishing, and camping
- Diverse student community from 15 states and nine countries
- An opportunity to develop character, faith and brotherhood
